

Application for Arkansas Financial Education Commission

Thank you for your interest in serving on the Arkansas Financial Education Commission. The Commission is dedicated to creating and providing financial education programs for all Arkansans. For this reason, it is necessary to appoint members who represent a broad cross-section of financial expertise. Appointments are for two-year terms.

In order to receive the best possible consideration, we ask you to fully complete the application form below. The rules of the Commission include specific requirements for a certain number of appointments, which means that factors such as profession, ethnicity and gender will be relevant.

Applications due by August 31, 2021. Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted.
